

Yealink W71P Cordless Phone System

Overview

The Yealink W71P is a professional cordless phone system designed for small and medium businesses. It combines a powerful base station with flexible cordless handsets, giving teams freedom to move around the office while staying connected with clear, secure calls.

Key strengths

- Up to 10 cordless handsets on one system
- Handles up to 20 calls at the same time
- Long battery life – up to 30 hours talk time
- Quick charging for busy users
- Excellent voice quality with noise reduction
- Secure encrypted calling

Performance & expansion

- Strong wireless coverage across offices and warehouses
- Expandable with repeaters for larger sites
- Supports multiple phone lines and users
- Remote setup and central management
- Works with Yealink cordless accessories

Calling & user features

- Call hold, transfer, waiting and forwarding
- 3-way conference calling
- Paging and intercom between handsets
- Caller ID with name and number
- Speed dial, voicemail and redial
- Do Not Disturb and call mute

Hardware, security & box contents

- Wall or desk mountable base station
- Long standby time for cordless handsets
- Secure voice encryption for all calls
- Includes handset, base station, charger and cables
- 2-year manufacturer warranty